

New Jersey's Do Not Call Law has improved my family's quality of life. We have never made a single purchase from a telemarketer but their calls used to disturb us regularly. If I want new windows or kitchen cabinets I don't need a call in the middle of dinner to know it. Since signing up for Do Not Call we have been able to enjoy our evenings in peace.